Fashion meets furniture

Aiveen Daly is an upholsterer extraordinaire, with a palpable flare for fashion. With its clean lines, delicate embellishments and haute couture-inspired detailing, her new Jewels collection is unapologetically feminine, epitomising modern glamour. Indeed, Daly's Ice Diamond sofa took its original inspiration from the iconic Chanel handbag, with its soft, quilted leather diamonds echoing the French fashion house's timeless elegance. This perfectly pretty piece would add a touch of class to any room. Who needs sparkly gems? This really is a girl's best friend.

£9,350. By appointment only, 2 Letchford Gardens, NW10 (020 8962 0044; www.aiveendaly.com)

London Design Festival

With over 300 events taking place, the Capital is set to become a mecca for design lovers this month. But to the uninitiated, the festival can seem a little daunting – with so much going on you'd be forgiven for feeling like you're lost in maze of high-end homewares shows and cutting edge design dos (not a bad thing, granted). Sometimes the most simple ideas are the ones that really stand out: British brand Modus will be launching a host of new product ranges including their smart Noughts and Crosses collection of tables and stools, we think they're a great place to start. 14 to 22 September, various locations (www.londondesignfestival.com; www.modusfurniture.co.uk)

Smart ceramics

The perfect gift for the coffee lover in your life, Keir Townsend's nifty sets of cup, saucer and spoon manage to be chic, fun and practical, and that's no mean feat. But it's exactly what great design is all about, and it's why we're rather taken with these sweet, snow-white ceramic sets. In Espresso, Cappuccino and Jumbo/Soup dimensions, they're irresistibly collectable, too. From £11, 142 Old Brompton Road, SW7 (020 7746 2442; www.keirtownsend.com)
