Under the Surface

The beauty of these recycled glass surfaces lies in the translucent quality which means they can be lit from underneath to create a bespoke display or feature. The glass is available in Aquamarine, Emerald, Amber and Deep Blue. Expect to pay from £660m². keirtownsend.com.

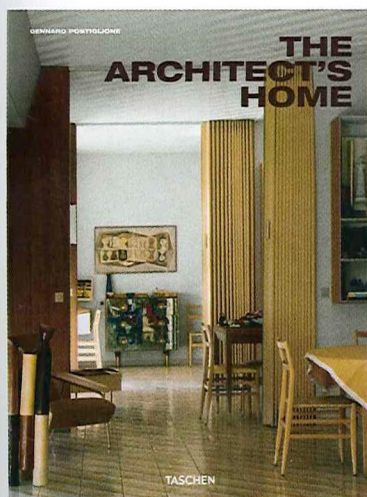

Taste opportunity

Two michelin starred British chef Michael Wignall will be unveiling a special London pop-up at the The Rib Room Bar & Restaurant in Knightsbridge. Expect a luxurious eight course tasting menu available at dinner from 15th-18th May. To book a table, call 020 7858 7250.

TIMELESS TWIST

Good looks aren't hard to come by with the now 13-colour strong enamel range. This fresh Aqua shade is the latest to be added and it's available on all AGA models. The pastel hue is versatile as it will complement cabinetry, tiles and paint in modern or traditional kitchens. From £4,995. agaliving.com.

BE INSPIRED

We are continuously looking for inspiration to make our homes a true reflection of ourselves. So delve into the gorgeously photographed pages of this book exploring architects' own homes - each individual space speaks more about its designer than any other building possibly could. It's £27.99 in hardback. taschen.com.

All LOVED UP

Whether you want a window seat or a place for friends to sit around a bench-style dining table, the Ercol Originals love seat is an attractive option. This iconic piece has been given a fresh finish in Pantone's colour of the year, Emerald Green, but retains its natural beauty with an array of wood finishes available including elm and beech, it costs £720. ercol.com.
